

THE NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY

Mrs. Bartlett Out.

Mrs. O. B. Bartlett, who has been quite sick for some time and recently underwent an operation for tonsillitis at the Fennell infirmary, Rock Hill, is rapidly recovering and is able to be out.

Roddey Bell Speaks.

Roddey Bell made a four-minute talk at the Star Theatre last night in the interest of the Victory loan. He gave some of his experiences on the front that were intensely interesting. He was a member of the Thirtieth Division and has very recently returned.

Hour for Services Changed.

The following schedule will be adopted for religious services for the spring and summer months by the official time. This change was decided upon by the ministers at a meeting last Saturday. Sunday school 10:30 a. m., morning service 11:30 a. m., evening service 8:30 p. m., midweek prayer meeting 8:30 p. m.

Dr. Poore Promoted.

Dr. J. E. Poore, of Columbia, now stationed with the 3rd division at Mangel, Germany, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel in the medical corps. This is the highest rank yet attained by any medical officer from Columbia. Dr. Poore is a brother of Mrs. T. Y. Williams and son-in-law of Mrs. L. C. Payseur, of Lancaster, and is well known here where he practiced his profession for several years before removing to Columbia.

Report to Prof. Lee.

All colored soldiers, in any branch of the service, will please send in names and addresses to Prof. M. D. Lee, stating when discharged and branch of service. Arrangements are under way to give these soldiers a banquet at an early date.

Mr. Terry's Mother Dead.

Mrs. C. B. Terry died at her home in Hamlet Thursday afternoon, April 10 at the age of 67 years. She is survived by her husband and seven children, one of the latter being W. H. Terry, of this city, who was at her bedside when the end came. Mrs. Terry's five sons and son-in-law were the pallbearers.

Mrs. Springs to Marion.

The Marion Star says: Mrs. Leroy Springs, of Lancaster, state president of the Federated Clubs of South Carolina, will be in Marion on Thursday, April 27th. She will make a talk at the Public Library at 4:30 o'clock that afternoon, to which all the women of the town are cordially invited. Mrs. Springs is a most delightful and entertaining speaker, and a treat is in store for those who can attend this meeting. An informal reception will follow Mrs. Springs' talk.

The Jewish Relief Fund.

As chairman of the Jewish Relief Fund committee, I wish to thank all those benevolent citizens of Lancaster county who have so cheerfully contributed and responded to the cry of the starving Jews of Europe. You will be pleased to know that more than $1,600 have been pledged, of which amount a check of $1,344.52 was forwarded today to Mr. August Kohn, state chairman, Columbia, S. C.

Mr. Harry Hirsch is acting as secretary of this committee and will receive all unpaid pledges as they fall due. I am sure it will be a pleasant reflection on the part of all who have responded to this call to think that their contribution may have saved a life.

Hugh R. Murchison,
Chairman.

List of Returned Soldiers.

The Lancaster county chapter of the Red Cross will give a banquet to the returned white soldiers, of Lancaster county, in Lancaster April 26th.

Addresses will be made at the house Saturday morning, and in the afternoon a picnic dinner will be served on the lawn in front of Judge Ernest Moore's home. The Marine band from Charleston will play during the day. Every white soldier in Lancaster county is invited to this banquet, and is requested to wear his uniform.

The Red Cross wishes the soldiers to understand they will not be asked to buy Victory bonds while in Lancaster April 26th.

The colored canteen committee of the Red Cross will entertain the colored soldiers at a date to be announced later.

Miss Etta Skipper, secretary of Home Service department of the Red Cross, has given the following list of returned soldiers. This list is not complete, and Miss Skipper asks that any white soldier whose name does not appear on this list, notify her by Thursday, April 24th.
